Nearly 2,000 Sigs. For 42 Hour Week

Following the verification of the petition circulated townwide by the Arlington firefighters during the last two weeks, Town Clerk Mary Farrington has certified 1,932 signatures. These represent registered voters who have gone on record as approving the 42-hour work week request by the Firefighters Local 1297 of Arlington.

A total of 2,300 signatures were obtained by the firefighters and when turned over to the Town Clerk, certification of the 1,932 followed.

The matter now goes onto the Town Ballot for vote by the registered voters of the Town of Arlington in the Election of March 1, 1969.

Like to Visit Rink Area

The Special Commission to Investigate and Study the Construction and Maintenance of Recreation Areas in the Metropolitan District would like to visit the proposed M.D.C. rink area on Summer st.

This information was contained in a letter to the Board of Selectmen.

The matter was scheduled to come before the Board at its meeting Monday night.

Serving on the Special Commission with Representative Eleanor Campobasso of Arlington will be Sen. John J. Moakley, chairman; Sen. Oliver F. Ames, and Representatives Joseph E. Brett, vice-chairman; Philip Carney, Amelio A. Della Chiesa, Anthony James Scallii.

Also serving will be Mrs. Julia O'Brien, Metropolitan Area Planning Council; Lawrence Woodbury, United Community Services, and Mr. Howard Whitmore, Jr., Commissioner of the M.D.C.

The notification relative to the proposed visit read in part as follows:

December 7, 1968
"Honorable Board of Selectmen
Town Hall
Arlington, Mass.
Gentlemen:

"The Special Commission to Investigate and Study the Construction and Maintenance of Recreation Areas in the Metropolitan District would like to visit the proposed M.D.C. skating rink site on Summer Street in Arlington which was selected by Mr. Howard Whitmore, Jr., Commissioner of the M.D.C.; Mr. Donald Marquis, Town Manager of Arlington, and yourselves.

"The Commission, or a subcommittee of the Commission, would like to visit the site with you and the other gentlemen involved in its selection on Wednesday, January (Continued on Page 2)

TMA Group To Meet

The second regularly scheduled informational meeting of the Arlington Town Meeting Association will take place this evening, Jan. 2, at the Arlington Lodge of Elks Home, 66 Pond Lane.

A short business meeting will begin at 8 p.m. sharp. Beginning at 8:30 p.m., invited guest speakers will address those in attendance, relative to pending Warrant Articles or other matters of local interest. Invited guests of the evening are the Arlington Board of Selectmen, Senator Phil Pellegrini, Representatives Eleanor Campobasso, William Pickett, Ned Dever and Gregory Khachadorian.

The Middlesex County Commissioners have also been invited to take part in the question and answer period that will follow the guest speakers' remarks. This portion of the program concludes at 10 p.m., leaving time for informal discussions and refreshments.

Interested, registered voters of Arlington are invited to attend all regular meetings of the TMA. These meetings are scheduled for the first Thursday of each month, through April 3, 1969 at the Arlington Lodge of Elks Home.

Power Knocked Out ---

Limbs, Trees Wires Felled by Ice Storm

A wild ice storm rattled by strong northeasterly winds knocked down limbs and wires and knocked out power in some sections of town while limiting travel to a crawl throughout the area over the past week.

Like a ... as nearly every other entry during the period from late Friday night through Saturday into Saturday night and thence into Sunday was marked "limb down," or "wire down."

The first report on the blotter that this reporter could see was on Cleveland st. where a limb was reported down.

Westminster ave., Bradley rd., Williams and Piedmont area, Tanager st., Forest st., Linden st., Forest st., again, Spring and Wall st., Brantwood rd., Sylvia st., Hawthorne ave. section, Elmore and Charlton.

Reports also came in from Hillside, Daniels, Wollaston ave., Walnut, Hutchinson rd., Revere st., Falmouth at Mystic, Murray st., College ave., 1300 Mass. ave., Egerton rd., Tufts st., Franklin, Westminster, Charlton, Daniels, a limb blocking the street on George st., Irving st., near the Parmenter school, Pleasant st. at Lakeview and Ruble.

From then on the tabulation of either limbs or wires down came in from the following streets: Menotomy rd., Academy st., Gloucester st., Mt. Vernon, Jason, Tufts, New-nort, Washington st., Hillside,

Other reports were received from Sutherland rd., Forest st., Pine st., Lancaster rd., Park ave., Claremont, Brantemy st., Albino, Everett st., a limb blocking Spring st., Mt. Vernon and Old Mystic.

Arlington's New Light

It is now forty-eight years since Rep. Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York introduced in Congress a resolution calling for the burial at Arlington National Cemetery of an unknown member of our forces "who was killed on the battlefields of France."

The bill was signed by President Harding, on March 4, 1921, and the following Memorial Day Sergeant Edward F. Younger stood solemnly before the caskets of four unknown soldiers. There was one from each of the four American National Cemeteries in France. The much-decorated soldier deliberated and, finally placed a spray of white roses on the casket that would be placed in honor on a hill overlooking Washington.

Guarded by a U. S. Marine, the Unknown Soldier returned home on the cruiser Olympia, Admiral Dewey's flagship at the battle of Manila Bay. On November 9, 1921, the Olympia glided into the Washington Navy Yard, greeted by a 21-gun salute. Then the precious body was escorted to the Capitol, where he rested in state beneath the great Rotunda on the catafalque that had borne the bodies of Presidents Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley. More than 100,000 people paid their respects that day and the following day; a like number would attend ceremonies at the Cemetery.

On November 11, three years after the end of the conflict, President Harding bestowed the Medal of Honor and the Distinguished Service Cross on the Unknown Soldier and the odyssey was ended.

In 1926, a sunrise to sunset armed guard was placed at the tomb, because of vandals who had been chipping away the stone. Later, in 1937 vandalism prompted a 24-hour vigil. In 1958, Unknown Soldiers from World War II and Korea joined their predecessors.

Come March 15, the American Legion will throw the switch for a new "gift to the Nation" on its Golden Anniversary, and the Tomb of the Unknowns will be flooded with light—a beacon of thanks for the freedom they died to protect. The permanent illumination is a gift which will be welcomed by millions of visitors to Arlington in the years to come.

LETTERS OUT

Town Clerk Mary Farrington told this paper this week that letters have been sent out to all Town Meeting members whose terms are up asking if they wish to sign seeking re-election.

A total of 80 such letters were sent out and 20 returns

To the Editor:

On behalf of the Arlington Art Association, I would like to thank you for the excellent cooperation given to us by the Arlington Advocate this past year.

In just a few years, the Art Association has grown from a handful of members to a sizable group with a significant influence on the appreciation of art and in the encouragement of artistic talent in the community. We sincerely believe that the Advocate, through the attention it has given to our activities, deserves considerable credit for this success.

Thank you, again, and best wishes to the Arlington Advocate and its staff for an extra fine '69!

Cordially yours,

Meanwhile, letters were also sent out to precinct chairman seeking the status of others who are not up for re-election this year.

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW

A HARD LOOK AT GOLD

Wellesley Hills, Mass., January 2—The international monetary system has received some very punishing blows over the past year or so. A few of these could have been almost fatal, had it not been for concerted rescue measures. As a result, gold has become a focal point of interest on a worldwide basis. Demand for the yellow metal became so great that it was necessary to adopt a two-tier price system: On the one hand, the official pegged price for gold of $35 per ounce; and on the other, the fluctuating free market price for gold which has been hovering around $40 per ounce.

FEARS OF FURTHER MONETARY STORMS

Despite the recent successful rescue of the franc, at least on an interim basis, the world monetary scene is marked by pronounced fear of additional financial upheavals. Many experts feel that the international monetary system, and specifically the role of gold within that framework, must be reviewed and revised if financial stability is to be achieved; that failure to do so could result in chaotic monetary conditions, and/or the world could again be faced with a restrictive international trade climate which could lead to economic depression.

Despite de Gaulle's austerity program to salvage the franc, it is questionable whether the people of France will endure its rigors for long. Now, there is also the specter of possible trouble for the Italian lira. Trouble for either or both of these currencies could spell problems for the British pound, which is still very much on shaky ground. The dollar could also be engulfed.

DISAGREEMENT AMIDST UNANIMITY

While there is agreement on the necessity of revising the monetary system of the world, there is little accord on the future role of gold. It is felt in some quarters that the only solution is a boost in the official price of gold and thus a devaluation of the dollar. In other circles there are pleas for a demonetization of gold, for withdrawing gold permanently from the monetary system.

Both schools of thought can be rationally argued, and both are open to criticism. But the basic fact is that most member nations of the International Monetary Fund, including the U.S.A., are not yet ready to adopt either course as a remedy for the world's money ills.

THE AMERICAN VIEW ON GOLD

This nation's policy (under the Johnson Administration) has aimed at the longer range while striving to maintain continuity with the past. It is based on four major premises: (1) That gold will be retained as a monetary reserve; (2) that its official price will continue to be $35 per ounce; (3) that the world must not be dependent upon gold alone as a monetary reserve; and (4) that Special Drawing Rights (or paper gold) will be created under the International Monetary Fund to augment gold reserves and provide added liquidity.

It appears that the International Monetary Fund is moving toward a policy which will encompass these four points. However, opponents decry the plan as a stopgap measure which can only delay the adoption of a more permanent solution. Actually, the future course of world events may well dictate the remedy.

HEDGE INVESTMENTS

Despite the complexity of the problem, Babson's Reports believes the overall assessment points to higher gold prices eventually. But this should not be construed as a carte blanche recommendation to buy gold stocks. While odds favor higher gold prices some day, the timing is obscure. Adoption of stopgap measures could long delay a hike in gold.

Nevertheless, some feel the need to maintain a hedge in the form of investments in gold stocks. There is nothing wrong with this, provided the investor does not go overboard and provided he is willing to sit patiently with his gold stocks. Babson's Reports' strategy would be to go with either Homestake Mining, the leading U. S. gold producer, or American-South African Investment Trust, a closed-end trust with a large portfolio of gold-mining stocks. Both are traded on the New York Stock Exchange, so convenient to follow.

COLLINS CORNER

It's about 8 p.m. on Saturday night, and you sit down to write your weekly column, and "bang-oh" out go the lights, and for a moment you wonder if you had paid the electric bill, but a peek around the neighborhood convinces you that it must be something more alarming. So in the solitude of the living room, brightened by a couple of Christmas Candles, you lean back, and just plain reminisce.

The wonderful Astroauts, and how at one time Barney Oldfield drove an automobile 60 miles and hour, and thus came the expression "a mile a minute".

And how a famous English Aviator named Graham White flew from the Airport at Squantum, near Quincy, to Boston Light and back without landing. Men swam that distance for years, but this flight was 'out of this world' and was so celebrated.

And how, if one were going to New York from Boston, he took a sleeper at the South Station, and arrived in the 'fun city' around 7 in the morning. Or, if one liked a sea voyage, he climbed aboard a ship at Rowe's Wharf, at Atlantic Avenue, at 5 p.m., and arrived in New York at 7 a.m. It was most enjoyable, with dining, dancing, and great sociability. Life seemed to move a bit slower, but it was because speed in our lives had not been perfected. When the lights went out Saturday evening, a call was made to a home in Arlington that was fortunate enough to have lights, and the concern was, "Oh I hope not, because I'll miss my T.V. programs". And the 'lad' sitting in semi-darkness remembered the ice cutting on Spy Pond, where in one season over 75,000 tons of ice were cut from that body of water, and placed in the three ice houses around the shores.

When the ice reached a certain thickness, the cutting would start, and thousands of spectators watched the work of the horses and men, marking, sawing, and directing the cakes to the houses, where an escalator would carry the ice up, to be stored for delivery as soon as the weather became a bit warmer.

And he still becomes amused when some sporting writer tells how the 'Spy Ponders' won another hockey game at the Arena, because it is a saying way out of the past, as it has been many years since the Arlington High played a regular hockey game on Spy.

Sunday was a big day on the Pond, and thousands from all over would skate nearly all day, taking time out only for church and dinner. Great hockey games, with top players would be on the ice, and entire families enjoyed this wonderful recreation. Physical Fitness was taken for granted, and as this was, of course, before Radio, T.V. and Sunday Sports, the measurements of the waists of men's pants were many inches smaller than they are today.

At Linwood St. was Taylor's Boat House, and up near Pond lane, near where the Elk's home is today was another place called Barrios, where one could change his shoes and skates. The Arlington Boat Club was just around the corner but it was off limits to all, but the chosen few, and very few were considered 'chosen' by this 'private group' who later faded out of the picture.

At Barlo's one could buy Coffee and Hot Dog's, a very sad memory comes to mind, as one sits at home in the dimness of a cold, hungry, and tired lad, removing his skates, inhaling the delicious odor of steaming french fries, and not having a nickel in his jeans.

If every guy needed 5-cents it was on that Sunday, and every time he pays 35-cents for a Hot-Dog at the Red Sox Park his mind wanders back to that dark, cold, dismal day at Barlo's on the shore of Spy Pond.

That Man About Town

Another year has rolled around. How many has this been for MAT? Who wants to remember that far back?

Christmas is still Christmas and the holidays still the holidays. The big dinner, lounging around the house, taking a nap, watching football.

And while watching football Christmas day, the ridiculous came to mind again.

No matter what sport it is, regardless of level of greatness—high school, college, professional, the basic conception of the game itself should not be altered—and a prime example of that exact thing happening took place in the North-South game in Miami.

Allowing only the front four men to rush turned the entire game around.

The final score was 3-0. Sounds like great defense. But it wasn't.

The runners ran, gained year.

quite a bit of yardage—so what? The passers were restricted. So what happened, the game reverted to the type seen prior to the invention of the pass.

Oh, the boys played well. The game had its highlights, but there it ended.

The result was like telling a basketball player he could only dribble to midcourt or a hockey player that he couldn't pass off to a fellow player after making a great rush up ice.

Five passes intercepted by the north, neither team able to sustain a constant passing attack. You just can't ignite a good passing attack when seven men are guarding three or four, and that was just what was happening.

Some changes in sports in the line of progress is a must, but not when the net result takes away part of the basic play of the game itself.

That's all for sports this year.

Happier New Frontier

January will mark the beginning of "a happier New Year" for countless victims of birth defects if everyone responds to the mail appeals for contributions now being sent out by the March of Dimes during its annual fund-raising campaign.

March of Dimes campaign director Middlesex County Registrar of Probate John V. Harvey stressed the importance of full support of persons in the Massachusetts Bay.

"Your checks will help finance more than 100 March of Dimes Birth Defects Centers where skilled medical specialists are setting standards for treatment and rehabilitation of children born less than perfect," he said.

"Nor does our work end there. Research studies also are being conducted in many parts of the country to determine the causes of these tragedies and how they may be prevented. During the year, many of our chapters conduct public education classes in communities throughout the nation on the value of prenatal care and other aspects of birth defects prevention."

These, and other March of Dimes programs require large sums of money, Mr. Harvey explained. "For the sake of our children, and their children, each of us has a stake in the success of this campaign," he said, in urging a generous response to the mail appeal.

In St. Camillus Church on Nov. 16, Mary A. Gorman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Gorman, 481 Appleton st., became the bride of James E. Duff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Duff of Somerville, Rt. Rev. John E. Sullivan performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau satin with peau d'ange lace applique on the bodice, sleeves and wedding ring neckline. The gown was designed with empire waist and A-line skirt with scalloped hemline. She wore a pillbox of the same lace and elbow length veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses in cascade.

Joyce Gorman was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids included Mrs. David J. Gorman of Malden; Donna Silva of Cambridge; and Margaret and Madeline Duff of Somerville.

Joseph Caruso of Somerville was best man. Ushers included Walter Shields of Framingham, Ernest Duarte of Cambridge, David Gorman of Malden and Elias Travassos of Somerville.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of silk and wool worsted in pink. The mother of the bridegroom wore an ensemble of blue chiffon with lace.

The bride is a graduate of Mt. Trinity Academy, Chandler School for Women and John Robert Powers Finishing School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Malden Catholic High school, Boston College and he received his Master's Degree in Education at Salem State Teachers College.

Following a reception at Chateau DeVille in Saugus, the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Bermuda. They plan to reside in Wakefield.

Jehovah's Convention In Arlington

Jehovah's Witnesses of the Arlington Mass. Congregation have been notified by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of Brooklyn, New York, that a combined program of Bible instruction and convention for 17 eastern Mass. congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses has been arranged in Arlington for Jan. 17-19.

At least 1,000 persons of all ages from the 35 towns and cities served by these congregations are expected to attend the free program.

Arlington High school, has been disclosed as the site for the assembly which will open Friday evening and conclude with a specially advertised public lecture on Sunday afternoon.

An ordination ceremony for new Witness ministers will be held Saturday afternoon.

Special interest has been expressed in the upcoming convention because of recent developments in the Bible study course offered to the public through the door-to-door ministry of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Members of the Arlington congregation, who have been calling on Arlington, Lexington and Bedford residents for more than 30 years, saw a new arrangement demonstrated for the first time last summer at a regional convention held at Narragansett Park in Pawtucket, R. I.

It is anticipated that further information and demonstrations utilizing the new study guide, "The Truth That Leads To Eternal Life," will highlight the Arlington training program.

"Our conventions are primarily concerned, not with Bible learning, but with methods of Bible teaching," said Mr. William Haxton in discussing the purpose of the gathering. "Since each Witness recognizes that to serve God he must be effective in convincing others in the reality of God's promises about the earth's future, mass training programs are necessary to accommodate the hundreds of Witnesses who preach just in this part of Massachusetts.

An hour lecture entitled "God's Way is Love" will be delivered Jan. 19, at 3 p.m. and is specially prepared for public interest, although all sessions of the three-day program are free and open to the public.

THE WHY OF WOOD

All of the nation's electrical utility companies (both public and private) use chemically-treated wood poles for more than 90% of their electricity delivery systems. The reasons: economy, easy serviceability, and good insulation.

SCHOOL and SPORTS

by Hal O'Brien

Due to the shortage of time, lack of space, and several of the staff out with the flu, the sports did not appear in last week's edition. So let me start off with a belated wish for a happy and prosperous New Year.

Both Arlington High's and Arlington Catholic's basketball teams were losers in their openers. Medford beat the AHS hockey team, 1-0, in the first league game for the Burnsmen; John Carney's AC six walloped Cathedral, 6-1, with John Quanci doing a great job in the nets.

The freshman hockey team, under Coach Carr, posted another shutout, this time over Catholic Memorial, 4-0. So, the year wound up good for some, bad for others.

In Arlington's 1-0 loss to Medford, it was just a case of not having a "scorer." What Coach Burns would not give for another "Buddy" Clarke, a Charlie Toczylowski, a Bobby Havern, or a Billy Corkery. The season is just starting and before long, Mr. Hockey (Coach Ed Burns) will develop a marksman. It could be Kent Davison, Tony Lyons, Mike Zona, Bernie Quinlan, Peter Flanagan, or even co-captain Dave Brine.

Paul Fitzpatrick is now playing defense for the Yale hockey team. He played his high school hockey at B. C. High and was chosen on several of the All-Scholastic teams in his senior year. Last fall, he was a member of Coach Cozza's Yale team that played that now famous 42-second game with Harvard at the Stadium.

Jon Deveau has recovered from the injury to his left hand and is back in the Yale hockey lineup. Jon is a forward and along with Paul Fitz was home for the Xmas holiday. Both boys had to report for practice Dec. 30.

John Allesandrini, a fine wing on the second line for Coach Ed Burns two years ago and now at Harvard, recently underwent a third operation for a shoulder separation at the Children's Hospital. Sincerely hope that John makes a quick recovery and that he will be back playing hockey shortly.

Frank Connelly, assistant basketball coach at Arlington Catholic under Dick Broderick, has taken over as head coach at St. Mary's of Cambridge, where Fran Foley of Arlington had charge of basketball for many seasons.

It looks like Warren Lewis has quite a wagon at the North End Catholic High school. The team easily beat Chelsea, 9-2, in the first league game for both clubs.

Playing hockey for Tom Moon, Jr. at the Nashoba Valley Rink in Acton are five localities: Billy Spina, Dick Bowman, Kevin Donovan, Brian Corkery and D. Donnelly. The boys played down at Norwalk, Conn. recently and had to stay overnight because of a severe snow storm.

John Grady is the only Arlington boy on the B.U. hockey squad. John, at 175 pounds, 5-11, is a defenseman.

It sure is nice to know that after all these years that our own Boston Bruins are now at the top of the league standings. Maybe '69 will be the year for the Stanley Cup playoffs at the Boston Garden.

Increased Interest Rates at Harvard

According to Edward P. Clark, president, the Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank is starting off the new year with increased interest rates on all types of deposit accounts.

The new higher per annum rates, payable with the January 2nd dividend on all accounts of ten dollars or more, are: 4.50% on Daily Interest Accounts; 4.65% on Savings Accounts; and 5.15% on Special ninety-day Notice Accounts. This action follows an increase in the dividend rate which was paid last October 1st. This bank pays dividends quarterly.

For 109 years, it has been the practice of the Arlington Five to pay its depositors the highest dividends possible, consistent with prudent management, insured-in-full safety of every dollar, and availability of funds as desired.

Arlington Stops N. Quincy 46-40

The day before Christmas, the AHS track team won 46-40 over the No. Quincy track team in the Div. 2 Met. League.

Tim Lynch won the mile in 5:03 with teammate Bob Brower taking third. Mike Ceurvels won the 1000, with Dave Baldwin a second place finisher.

In the 600, Bill Mahoney ran second and Paul Cochran took third place. Paul Manderino won the shot put with a toss of almost 40 feet and Charlie Barnaby took the third spot.

Arlington had a one-two finish in the two-mile with Tom Heaslip the winner and Jim Swanson just behind him.

For the second time in two meets, Paul Manderino was a double winner as he won the hurdles. Malloy of Arlington finished third in this event. Bob Baker, with a third in the high jump, scored Arlington's only points in the jumping event. Bob had a second in the 50-yard dash.

North Quincy won the relay in the time of 2:40 as the local boys have yet to come up with a winning relay combination. Arlington is now 1-1 and are headed by Rindge and Randolph with 2-0 records.

Taxpayer Assistance

District Director William E. Williams announced today that beginning Thursday, Jan. 2, 1969 and continuing daily (Monday through Friday) through Jan. 31, 1969, taxpayer assistance will be rendered in the Boston office located at the John F. Kennedy Federal Building, Government Center.

On the dates indicated, Internal Revenue Service personnel will be available from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. to render taxpayer assistance to all taxpayers who call at the office seeking assistance in the preparation of their Federal income tax returns.

Mr. Williams urges all taxpayers in need of assistance to complete as much of their return as possible before calling at the office. Taxpayers desiring telephone assistance may call 223-3441 any time from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on the dates indicated.

Opening dates for the month of February will be announced at a later date.

AHS Tracksters Lose Squeaker

Arlington High's track team lost a squeaker, and a chance to move up in Division II of the MET track loop. Saturday, bowing to Milton forty-four and one-half to forty-one and one-half.

Milton, which saw its 24-straight string broken in the previous meet took the top spot by winning the relay.

Arlington's point winners were as follows:

Mile: Lynch (1) and Repetto (3)
1000: Cervels (1) and Baldwin (3)
600: Mahoney (1)
300: Sullivan (2)
Two-Mile: Heaslip (2) and Swanson (3)
Shot Put: Manderino (1) and Barnaby (3)
High Jump: Sullivan (1) and Cuccio tie for (2)
Hurdles: Manderino (2)
Dash: Baker (3)

Burnsmen Edge Waltham 5-2

Arlington High school's hockey team after being blanked in G.B.I. competition for the first time in many years, and losing an opener to Medford for the second consecutive year, 1-0, put their name in the win column for the first time, last Thursday with a 5-2 win over Waltham.

Steve Hoar paced the Burnsmen to this league victory with a pair of first period markers and two assists.

The other Arlington markers were scored by Flanagan, Davison and Quinlan. Arlington moved ahead to stay in the first stanza as Hoar outscored Bob Jones 2-1. Jones added a second marker in the second canto but Arlington picked up two goals of its own and added a fifth in the final period.

Hoopsters Begin

The 1969 AHS girls' basketball team has been announced by Coach McDonough. Seniors Eileen Abruzzese, Ginny Barnaby, Debbie Getrost, Nanci Mahoney and Ann Mucci will backbone the team and should be ably assisted by juniors Elaine Cooper, Eileen Fitzpatrick, Sue Foley, Jeanne Hayes and Nancy Power.

These 10 upperclassmen plus sophomores Carolyn Grant and Bobbi Reardon represent the returning letter winners who had a 6-2 regular season record and a 4-0 record on route to winning the Billerica Invitational Tournament last February.

Four other members of the 1968 squad have chosen not to play basketball this season in what could be a most interesting one.

Newcomers expected to see plenty of action on the junior varsity are sophomores Joan Carter and Ann Keefe as well as freshmen Judy Bryant, Janet Flynn, Susan Gallison, Elynn Geremonte, and Sylvia Streils. A nine-game schedule has been set up including home games on Tuesday, Jan. 7 with Cambridge and Jan. 10 with Milton.

Practices, Jan. 17 in town; and Friday Feb. 1 in Belmont.

Their team has also been invited back to the Billerica Invitational Tournament as defending champions and will be seeking their second crown during February Vacation.

Pre-season scrimmage has been arranged with Matignon High school and should give some indication of what to expect during the coming season as the Cambridge school always has a team of championship caliber and this year is no exception.

At this point the question marks seem to lie in the defensive set-up of the AHS line-up. All four starting members of the offensive unit are back including high scorer Debbie Getrost; lost by graduation are the top three defensive players of '68, namely: Caissie, Heffernan and Manderino. Elaine Cooper and Jeanne Hayes seem to have the inside track if the team continues to use a system of four two-way players and two stationary guards. It is a good bet however that the material available will make it possible

AHS Trackmen Lose To Randolph

Don Bosco Beats A.C.H.S. 78-53

Don Bosco handed A.C. its second league hoop loss 78-53 last week as it out-scored A.C. in every period. The East Boston school went out to a 19-11 lead at the end of the first period. At half time it was 33 to 24 in favor of Don Bosco.

Using the fast break in the third period, the Easties ran up a total of 26 points while holding the locals to an even dozen.

It was 19 points for Don Bosco to 17 for A.C. in the last period. Bill Grant was the A.C. high scorer with 20 points. Jim Lyons was the only other local player in double figures with 10.

to have six two-way players going most of the time. In that case add the names of Mucci, Foley, Power and Grant to those chasing a starting berth.

In the first regular meet of the indoor track season, the Arlington High track team lost to powerful Randolph 37 1/3 to 38 2/3. The loss of the relay event by the Arlington runners cost the team a win.

Mike Ceurvels was the only first place winner. He won the 1000 with Dave Baldwin in second place. In the mile, Tim Lynch was second and Dick Repetto third. Bill Mahoney and Harry Gennis were second and third in the 600.

Tom Heaslip's third place finish was all the points Arlington had in the two-mile event.

Paul Manderino won a second in both the 45-yard hurdles and the shot put. Bob Cuccio was second in the high jump and it was a tie for third between Bob Baker and Mark Sullivan of Arlington.

Named Chairman

Richard F. Schober, 116 Claremont ave., will be chairman of the Career Day Committee for the 23rd annual Printing and Publishing Week of New England to be held Jan. 11-18 in Boston.

As chairman of this committee, Schober has directed arrangements for printing students from 15 area high schools to participate in Career Day.

Two students selected from each school will be taken on a tour of a printing firm and will be able to ask questions pertaining to the work. Later the students will be guests at a luncheon and will receive certificates of participation.

Schober is executive director of Printing Industries of New England in Boston. He is a member of the Graphic Arts Associates Executives.

Printing and Publishing Week is held each year throughout the country to recognize the importance of the printing and publishing industry.

The New England Press Association is a sponsoring member of the New England P and P Week.

BECAUSE PIONEERS USED TREES NOT ONLY FOR HOUSING BUT ALSO FOR FURNITURE AND HEAT. A MAN'S DOUBLE-EDGED AXE WAS EVEN MORE IMPORTANT THAN HIS RIFLE!

Bonita J. Allen, pictured above with her escort, was a member of the Wyndham School Prom Committee. The Christmas affair was held at the Hotel Vendome, Dec. 28. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Allen, 59 Everett st.

NEW ICE CAPEDES STAR

If it had not been for Boston, Charlene McLaren might never have become the Ice Capades star she is today.

Being born in sunny California is not necessarily most conducive to learning the art of figure skating. Having been brought up in the skating rinks of Boston, however, Charlene's mother decided to enroll her daughter in a skating club. Eleven years later, at age 22, this pert and pretty young lady has two solo numbers in the 29th edition of Ice Capades. She is featured in "Rhapsody for Piano and Ice" which was composed especially for the Capades by composer-lyricist James Herbert. She is also featured in "Fabulous Face, Fabulous Girl" which Charlene certainly has and is.

Ice Capades opens with the first of 19 performances at Boston Garden on Friday, December 27. America's Number One Family Show will play through January 5.

Local Dog Best Of Breed

Judge George Kennedy, left, checks out "Beau," a Champion Boston Terrier who was awarded Best of Breed at the 55th Annual Eastern Dog Show, held at the Boston War Memorial Auditorium last Saturday. Breeder and handler Francis McKenna, right, of Arlington, is the owner of "Beau" and will enter him in the Westminster show against the world's champions next February.

Duke Tops Again Parade, a champion Boston Terrier which is owned by Francis E. McKenna, 104 Wright st., won Best of Breed at the 55th annual Eastern Dog Show held at the War Memorial Auditorium this past Saturday in Boston.

Mr. McKenna, who exhibits and breeds Boston Terriers, had two entries in the show which attracted 2069 dogs from all breeds. His other entry, Mr. Huggins, placed first in the Novice class and was handled by Diane Spero also of Arlington.

"Beau," (short for Duke Tops Again Parade) is the son of international champion Tops Again's Happy Prince.

Beau became a bonafide champion in November during the Boston Terrier Club of America Specialty Show in Boston. His championship was gained in only four months of competition; a rarity for any breed.

Beau will be used for breeding purposes now that he is a champion but he will still enter competition. Next February he will be competing against the finest champion Boston Terriers in the world at the Westminster Kennel Club Show at New Madison Square Garden in New York.

Mr. McKenna is vice president of the Boston Terrier Club of America which is the parent club for 25 affiliated clubs throughout the country.

Promoted

David H. Edson has been promoted to associate comptroller of Dartmouth College, according to an announcement by John F. Meck, treasurer and vice president of the college.

Mr. Edson, a 1952 graduate of Dartmouth, first returned to the college in 1955 as assistant to the Dean. He was appointed an academic counselor in the Office of Student Counseling two years later and, in 1958, he became assistant comptroller, a position he has held until now.

Mr. Edson was graduated from Arlington High school in 1946, enlisted immediately for two years in the U. S. Army Security Agency, and entered Dartmouth in 1948.

He earned his Master's degree in education at Colgate University in June, 1954.

While doing graduate work there, he also served on the faculty as a freshman advisor and later as co-director of the Remedial Reading Laboratory. Before returning to Dartmouth, Mr. Edson was assistant to the director of admissions at Hobart College for the academic year 1954-55.

Mr. Edson and his wife, the former Elizabeth Ann Pierce of Attleboro, live with their three children in Norwich, Vt. where he has been active in civic affairs.

APPLE
George Harrison—
Wonderful Music
Beatle George Harrison with a full-length LP, written, arranged and produced by him, and recorded in India. Featuring the sound of instruments as, sitar, sarod, santoor, tabla and parkaya among them. The dozen selections include, "Microbes," "In the Park," "Drilling a Hole," "Ski-ing and Kat Kirwani" and "Dream Scene" on side one. Two has, "Party Seacombe," "Love Scene," "Glass Box," "Wonderwall to be Here" and ends with "Singing On." Most interesting sounds of music.

"Music to Cry By," "The Wild Side of Life," "Cheaters Can't Win," "Why" and "Go Get It." The Wright sounds on two are, "Old Honky Tonk," "Mama Tried," "Atlanta Georgia Baby" and "Stop the World." Country songs done the Wright way by Johnny.

MUSICOR
Beware of Greeks Bearing Gifts

A funny comedy album featuring a take-off on Jackie Kennedy and the golden greek Aristotle Onassis. The LP was produced and created by Bob Booker and George Foster, and stars Susan Anspach as Jackie, with Joe Silver as Aristotle. It contains twenty comedy situations, funnier ones are, "Mamma," "Getting Ready for the Wedding," "The Press Conference" and "A Quiet Evening at Home." More on side two with, "A Typical Morning," "The Dinner," "A Visit to New York" and "Man of Action." Laughs galore.

PROJECT 3
Tony Mottola—Rome Today
A dozen sounds of today from Rome, Italy, done Tony in his refreshing. Big hits as, "Help Yourself," "A Man Without Love," "Mala Femmena (Bad Woman)" and "Come Prima" fill side one. Italian tunes on two are, "Forget Domani," "My Love Forgive Me," "You and Only You," "Volare" and closes with his own tune, the beautiful, "Sentimental Guitar." Tony Mottola is Italy, Tony's sound is today!

SOUND STAGE 7
Joe Simon—Simon Sings
One of the few recording artists in the music business who has the credentials to be called a "soul singer." His latest LP will give you eleven big reasons, as he packs soul into each and every track. Opening with a recent single release, "Message from Maria," he follows with, "Misty Blue," "Standing in the Safety Zone" and "In Reach of Your Arms." On two he sings, "I'm Going Home," "Twinkle," "Dreamin'," "Looking Back" his current single and "Funny How Time Slips Away." Joe Simon is SOUL.

VIVA
The Travel Agency
You are invited to take a 'trip,' with all the arrangements taken care of by the Travel Agency. A twelve-stop tour that includes, "What's a Man," "Sorry You Were Born," "Lonely Seabird," "So Much Love" and "Make Love." The 'round trip' fare also includes, "I'm Not Dead," "She Understands," "Come to Me" and "Old Man." All selections written by the Travel Agency. An LP can listen to without reservations.

DOT
The Warm World of Jack Sheldon
After playing feature roles in two television shows, "The Cara Williams Show" and "Run, Buddy, Run," here's Jack now in his warm world making some beautiful music. His hot horn will light your fire with songs as, "The Look of Love," "Forget," "The Odd Couple," "Holiday" and "Grazin' in the Grass." The fire will smoulder as the flip side continues with, "Emily," "With a Little Help from My Friends," "Nature Boy," "Daydream" and "Sweet Talk." Lose yourself in Jack's warm and wonderful world.

DECCA
Johnny Wright Sings Country Favorites
The Country favorites of Johnny as he delivers eleven of his interpretations of these tunes. Among them are,

MONUMENT
Jeannie Seely—Little Things
Jeannie is a beautiful and talented young lady, as her fine album will confirm. It contains some emotion-packed Country tunes as, "Little Things" the LP title song, "Just Because I'm A Woman," "Maybe I Should Leave" and "A Little Unfair." More feeling on side two with, "Leave Me Alone," "Dreams of the Everyday Housewife," "How Is He," "Harper Valley P.T.A.," "My Love Dies Hard" ending with, "Long Black Limousine." A great album of Country sounds by pretty Seely.

IMPERIAL
Cher's Golden Greats
Twelve cuts of gold by Cher, the female half of the Sonny and Cher singing team. Ride her moods through tracks as, "You Better Sit Down Kids," "Sunny," "Come and Stay With Me," the lovely "A-Hee," plus "Take Me For A Little While" and Dylan's "All I Really Want to Do." Side two sparklers contain four of Sonny's compositions, "Bang Bang," "Needles and Pins," "Dream Baby" and "Where Do You Go," along with, "Elusive Butterfly" and "Hey Joe." The golden sounds of the great Cher.

The Kindred Soul of Danny Wagner
A recent discovery, Danny has put together his first album, and it's chock full of 'blue-eyed soul.' Among the selections are, "Harlem Shuffle," "Unchained Melody," "Out of the Shadows of Love," "My Buddy" and "Little Children." Turn it over and groove to the sounds of, "Big Boy Pete," "Bring It On Home to Me," "This Thing Called Love," "I Lost a True Love," "Claudia" and wraps it up with, "Sonny Boy." The very versatile performance of one, Danny Wagner.

EPIC
Fleetwood Mac—
English Rose

The album cover will stop you in your tracks, the music inside will hold you there. On the cover is drummer Mick Fleetwood disguised as a chick, English Rose, complete with strawberry blonde hair, lipstick and even a beauty mark emphasized by a vicious scowl. The music has, "Stop Messin' Round," "Jigsaw Puzzle Blues" an instrumental, "Doctor Brown," "Something Inside of Me" and

"Love That Burns." Two turns you on to, "Black Magic Woman," "I've Lost My Baby," "Without You" and "Albatross."

BUDDAH
1910 Fruitgum Co.—
Goody Goody Gum Drops

Double your listening pleasure with the 1910 Fruitgum Co., and their tasty LP of ten tracks. They open with the title song, "Goody Goody Gum Drops," and follow with, "Liza," "Mr. Cupid," "Hot Diggity Dog," and "Hook, Line and Sinker." On two taste, "Dee-Licious," "Please Me, Tease Me," "Mr. Music Man," "A.B.C. I Love You" and closes with the wrapper, "Fee-Fi-Fo-Fum." More happy goodies from Super K Productions.

HOPE YOU HAD A 'COOL YULE' AND ENJOY '69.

FREE MOVIES AVAILABLE FOR MEETINGS

Using motion pictures is an excellent way to add impact to a club or organization meeting, and hundreds of excellent films are available free from large companies and associations.

Two of the best, currently available, tell about progress in the world during the next 30 years, and about the history of America's steel industry.

"The Challenge of Six Billion" was photographed by camera crews who traveled 36,000 miles around the world for a filmed report on the year 2000 A.D.
Will we be able to provide enough food, water, power and transportation for the six billion people who will inhabit the world at that time? This is the subject of the film, which describes projects now underway in South America, Africa, Asia and even the United States — projects that will ease our entry into the 21st century.

An optimistic report, the half-hour color film is presented by Allis-Chalmers. Modern science and technology, the film suggests, can solve many of the world's problems right now.

"Steel and America," presented by the American Iron and Steel Institute, looks back through American history to make a single, impressive point: Just as America's democratic principles paved the way to greatness as a society, so did steel assure our greatness as an industrial nation.
The movie traces our indus-

Not only is the food supply a major problem...

but transportation must be improved. Brazil is larger than continental U. S., yet has fewer roads than Maine.

trial development from the first iron works in Saugus, Massachusetts in 1646. It offers a splendid historical view of America from a different perspective.

Produced by the Walt Disney organization, "Steel and America" has many dramatic scenes of modern steel-making that show the great strength of our industry today.
As a humorous touch, the picture features Donald Duck playing out the role of a primitive iron master, colonial sword maker and modern scientist. Highly entertaining, the picture is at the same time educational.

Either or both of these half-hour films in color can be borrowed at no charge by writing to Sterling Movies, Department CPS, 375 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10022. Give them a preferred and alternate show date for each film.
